concert, on account of its possibilities of comfortably seating a large number of people, and also because of its accessibility, it being convenient to the elevator and the stairway leading from the main store.

The occasion for these concerts is to honor Thomas A. Edison, America's greatest inventor, whose genius has made possible this wonderful musical instrument. The whole country is cel-ebrating Mr. Edison's great achievements this week, it being known all over the United States as Edison week, and Edison dealers everywhere are emorating the event by a series of complimentary concerts.

The following is the programme that CHICKEN THIEF was given at the concert last evening: William Tell Overture (Rossini), band; Forgotten (Cowles), baritone, Thomas Chalmers; Schon Rosinari (Kreisler), violin solo, Albert Spaulding; When I Was a Dreamer (Van Alstyne), tenor solo, George Ballard; Genius Loci (Thern), violin, 'cello and bass; Caro Nome (Rigoletto), soprano, Alice Ver-let; Through the Air (Damon), piccolo (Donizetti), Sodero's band; April Smiles (Depret), orchestra; selections, Lammermoor (Donizetti), tenor solo, Alessandro Bonci. There will be three more of these complimentary evening concerts this week, namely, on Tuesday Thursday and Friday evenings, and all music lovers generally are invited to attend.

Chairman Corkery Speaks. Chairman Corkery spoke to gathering as follows: appeal to the people for support on every ground that we thought might accomplish our purpose, and we have met with some success.

Today I feel that our thanks are due to all those business and professional men of our city who have been publicspirited enough to help us financially, and our thanks are also due to another class of people—those who have not been able to help us financially but who, by the good will expressed in kindly words, have given us encouragement at times when many others were wielding their hammers. There is not one of us who has any feeling of resentment in this camaign, not one of us who has entered to this work with any selfish motives; and success means no more to us than it does to the rest of the peoole of this community.

RHEUMA

Recognized by Druggists as a Specific for Rheumatism and Kidney Troubles.

Are you suffering from some form of from some corm of rheumatism? Then you need a remedy for that disease only—not a preparation said to cure all the ills of the human body. Drive out the cause.

Rheuma cleanses the kidneys of the poisonous uric acid secretions; opens the clogged veins so that the healthy blood can pass along the dead matter from the entire system; regulates disordered bowels, and enables a sluggish, liver to convert thin, impure blood into rich, life-giving corpuscles. When this is accomplished the source of the disease will be wiped out. Rheuma is free from dangerous drugs. During the treatment the digestive organs are not deranged—Rheuma creates a healthy appetite. Sold by Lee & Osgood Co. and all druggists. Do not conflict Rheuma with other preparations of similar name—insist on the genuine—in liquid form.

If your stomach is sick and sour and your bowels don't work properly, take Rhe-lax and feel good. Sold by all druggists.
